Words of Gratitude

Perhaps you sent a card, you may have made a phone call, sent a text, posted on social media or stopped by to visit. Whatever expression of kindness you have shown is greatly appreciated. You never know just how many friends you have until you have lost a loved. Please continue to pray for us as we go through this difficult time.

The family would like to extend a special thank you to Bishop Abram Dixon and the "PC Village" (Bertha's BFFs, a very loyal devoted group of friends), and everyone who assisted with the food, Tonis Detailing (Antonio Hernandez). Your kindness & assistance will never be forgotten.

Loving Tributes

Trent,

It has been super hard for me down here without you. I never saw anything like this coming and it is so hard to process because all I can see is you being excited every minute of the day. I don't know what to do without you. I know I have to do this for you, mama and Ari, but my head is not stable to think. Every time someone brings up what happened, I want to do something so crazy. Then when I'm alone, I want to do good for you and your name but its hard to not see what happened to you. Everyone in the family is sad right now but nobody knows how I feel and what I think. Why did I have to see you go. Why, why, why... It feels like I am not even me no more without you. You never wanted me to live like you. You always wanted me to be better than you. I am going to do my best to make you proud. You are my SuperHero
I love you Bro, ~Brenda

My first grandson, those special memories of you will always bring a smile. If only I cold have you back for just a little while. Then we could sit and talk again, just like we used to do. You always meant so very much and always will. The fact that you're no longer here will always cause me pain! You are forever in my heart until we meet again.
Love, ~Shane

Dear Brother,

I love you with all of my heart. I'm sorry that you left how you left. You are in a better place and I know you're at peace, I saw it on your face. I'm hurting more than you can imagine but I am going to be okay. I am going to do my part and make sure your girls have a good life. I will always remind them of how much you love them. You were my protector, my father, and most of all my best friend. Yeah, we fought the most but we'd go to war behind each other. You always said, "Ari either you gone thrive or starve in this world." We had a bet to see who would be rich first. Even though you aren't here to finish the bet, I promise big brother, I will make you proud. You had big dreams brother. You had an imagination that I have never seen before and I was slowly starting to see all of it come true. Even though you didn't complete what you started, I will finish it. You can finally rest Fat Boy. I love you forever and I will never forget about you. ~Sara
