Obituary Darryl WOODS

On July 28, 1960 God blessed Warren Woods Jr. and Ellen (Taylor) Woods with a son, whom they lovingly named Darryl Wayne Woods and raised in Houston, Texas. Darryl received his formal education at Bellaire High School in Bellaire, Texas. Darryl also accepted the love of Christ at an early age at New Day Deliverance Holiness Church. Darryl was employed by the City of Houston as a public service worker and then later worked for the University of Houston as a chef until he became ill.

Throughout his life, Darryl was highly known for the person who always kept a smile on your face no matter the situation and on any given Sunday you can witness him and his love for the Dallas Cowboys, LOUDLY. Darryl also had a deep passion for cars, especially anything involving the sound system, he thoroughly enjoyed spending time with his nephews working on their cars. Darryl was truly the "life of the party" you could always count on him to show up to every family gathering and you could definitely count on him to leave with a to-go plate (or two). More importantly, Darryl loved giving nicknames to his nieces and nephews, no one in the family would know each other's government name because once you were blessed with a nickname that is all you heard.

On March 28, 2021, our beloved Darryl was unexpectedly called home. He is preceded in death by his father Warren Woods Jr., eldest brother Carl, and grandparents Louis and Ellen Taylor, and Bertha Johnson. He leaves to cherish his memory and holding to the promise to one day see him again: his mother, Ellen Woods; Siblings, Kerry Woods, Terry Woods, Reginald "Boobie" Woods, Diane Godley, Warren Woods III., and Kimberly Woods; Children: Val'Shawn Byrd, Duran Smith, Diantoinette (Lady) Jones, Germichael Jackson, and Seikas Sanders; Sister-in-laws: Clarissa Woods and Trena Woods and a host of nephews, nieces, aunts, uncles, cousins, and a dear friend Patricia Sanders. Though the pain of losing him seems unbearable and he will truly be missed, we find comfort in knowing that he is no longer suffering and is in peace.

To My Beloved Son

"The day you left and gained your wings my heart just broke in two. I wish you could have stayed with me but as much as I need you, God needed you more.

You left me with so many wonderful memories, I will always cherish the memory of your beautiful blue eyes and cheerful face.

I know I cannot bring you back, although I wish it every day. I hear it mentioned often that time will heal the pain but a piece of me went with you the day you left.

I sit here and ponder how I wish I could see you or pick up the phone to hear your voice, there are so many things we did not get to say. I know how much you cared for me and how much I care for you.

My son know that you were loved. Know that no matter what, I was and am proud of you, know that your very being in this world was a blessing and that there will forever be a void in my heart where you once were. Until we meet again my beautiful boy, I love you and no matter how much time passes know that I always will." – Mom

I Am My Brother's Keeper

"You went away so suddenly we did not say get to say goodbye, but brothers can never be parted. Our precious memories will never die."

"From day one all we did was fight,
now all I do is fight back my tears.
I wanted to do everything you did,
because I wanted to be just like you.
Now I sit here wondering what to do,
because there's no one to replace you.
I never did tell you all the things I felt,
like how much I really did love you.
I wish we could go back and start over again.
I don't want to be alone. I need my brother,
I need my best friend.
When you think of me
while you are in heaven,
Think of how much you meant to me.
It is sad that you left without saying goodbye,
But just remember we all love you
as you began to fly.
You did so much for me,
as I did not do much for you.
I hope you will forgive me,
for all the things I didn't do.
You were our brother
and our best friend.
We will always love you no matter how long it's been, since your life came to an end." – Boobie, Kerry, Terry, and Diane

"Dear Brother-in-law,

You have always been more than just a brother-in-law. You were my friend, my mechanic, my babysitter, my rival, and even my chauffeur. You were the person I could always count on to answer the phone or come when I call. you are now free from the troubles of this world so rest those shiny blue eyes until we meet again."

– Clarissa

To Our Beloved Father

"You meant so much to all of us. You were special and that is no lie. You brightened up the darkest day and the cloudiest sky. Your smile alone warmed hearts. Your laugh was intoxicating. I would give absolutely anything to have you well and standing here. Not a second goes by that you are not on my mind. I know with time the pain of losing you will become more bearable, but I will never forget your love and all the memories we shared."

I hope you can hear me so I can let you know that you were and will forever be my superhero. So yes, today I am full of sorrow, But I will smile a little more with each tomorrow. So please, Dad, go. Be at rest and know to me no matter what You were always the best." - Diantoinette (Lady)

"Dear Dad,

Hi stranger, we have been on and off, but we made it work. We have been able to create a miraculous bond and I am more than grateful. We have made each other laugh and made lots of memories. I want to say thank you. Thank you for being there. Thank you for making me laugh, and most importantly, thank you for loving me. Though I might not have always expressed my love to you, I want you to know that you were loved by me. You have done more for me than I could have asked from you and I am more than grateful to have had you as a father. We will always have an undeniable bond. Love you dad." – GerMicheal

"It's me Lil D, just want to wish you well on your journey. You will be deeply missed. It was not enough time for us but I'm glad and grateful for the time we did have. I will forever cherish our road trip to the family reunion, your smile from that day will forever be imprinted in my memory. All the laughs, joy, drinks, and jokes we shared will forever be carried with me. I love you and know we will meet again. Forever and Always." – Val'Shawn
